

Modern House

1.2 Importance of house

i. A house is a shelter for man constructed with materials like stones, bricks, lime, cement, timber, steel, etc. It consists of foundation, walls, floor, roof, doors and windows. To get rid of the outside busy life and worries, man feels his house as a relaxed and rest place.

ii. A house protects the family from severe heat, cold, rain, storm, harmful animals and also from anti-social elements.

iii. A house binds the family members with love and affection. It brings them closer and helps them to understand each other and live together.

iv. For the general activities of a family like cooking, serving, washing, cleaning, storing materials, welcoming the guests, disposing the waste, etc., and for individual activities like reading, relaxing, sleeping, bathing, etc., a house forms the centre.

v. House facilitates a man to express his feelings and to act independently.

vi. A well planned house provides privacy, adequate rest and a healthy atmosphere to the family. It provides them feeling of governance, vision, affection and protection.

vii. Only in a house, an individual understands the heritage of his family, culture and habits.

viii. A house and its surrounding depicts the fame of the family.

ix. One of the factors which decides the status of a family is the house in which they live.

x. The development of a nation can also be measured by the colonies of houses in it.

1.3 Orientation

For a healthy life, the natural resources like sunlight, clean air and sufficient rain are mandatory requirements. But at the same time, care should be taken to see that these do not affect the people residing in the house. For this, the orientation of the house constructed in a particular plot is important. The entrance of the house and the orientation of the house should be in such a way that it allows adequate sunlight in the morning and also prevents the inmates from excessive heat during the day.

The doors and windows should be placed and arranged so as to allow adequate air. It is always better to have a verandah in front of the house. Each room should be oriented and placed depending upon the nature of activity it is intended for. Care should be taken for sufficient air and ventilation to all rooms.

1.4 Site selection

Since a house forms one of the basic requirement of man, to satisfy this, he has to initially select a suitable
