market, etc., are at walkable distances.

iii. If bus stand, railway station, etc., are near by the proposed plot, it will be very convenient for the family members to reach their offices, colleges or schools.

5. Neighbourhood

i. For guaranteed permanent happiness of the family it is always better to purchase a plot in a developed locality or in a developing locality.

ii. The plot should be chosen in such a locality where the neighbours residing there are of the same status when compared to us both socially and economically.

iii. If the plot is adjacent to seashore, one could enjoy the fresh sea breeze. But at the same time, the chlorides present in sea breeze can corrode the steel cup boards, furniture, window and door grills etc., quickly.

iv. If the plot is located in heavy traffic zone it leads to sound pollution, air pollution, etc., resulting in ill-health.

6. Legal characteristics

i. Before choosing a plot in a particular locality, it is good to know all the legal aspects completely regarding the plot and its locality by consulting a lawyer.

ii. The plot should be free from any encumbrance.

iii. The boundaries of the plot have to be predicted properly and its area has to be checked.

iv. It is good to purchase a plot which confirms the bye laws laid by municipality, town panchayat or Metropolitan Development Authority (MDA).

1.5 Principles of organizing a house

Though a plot may be of any geometric shape, there are certain principles which govern the shape of the building to be constructed in it as given below

i. External appearance
ii. Front elevation
iii. Privacy
iv. Grouping of rooms
v. Roominess
vi. Circulation
vii. Flexibility
viii. Sanitation
ix. Placement of furniture
x. Practical consideration

i. External appearance

External appearance mainly includes the location of doors and windows. The doors and windows should be located in such a way that natural resources like fresh air, sun light, natural scenery, etc., are enjoyed to the maximum extent.

ii. Front elevation

A house should have a pleasing and attractive appearance when it is viewed from outside. It should be modern and constructed with various features like beautiful balcony, carved pillars, simple and modern roofs.

iii. Privacy

It is important to take into consideration the privacy of each and every room in a house.

Privacy is of two types:-

- Privacy of individual room from other rooms and verandah.

  While positioning the rooms, care should be taken to see that doors,
