15. WEATHERING COURSE: It is about 100mm thick brick jelly lime concrete, provided at the top of the roof slab to protect the slab from weathering actions sunshine, rain, etc.

16. PARAPET WALL: It is a short wall of about 450 to 900mm built over the roof all round the building.

17. COPING: It is a projection on the top of the parapet wall on outside or both sides to throw off rainwater.

18. STEPS: Steps are generally in brick work in cement mortar 1:5 laid on PCC base. Rise and Tread of a step are 150 to 200mm and 230 to 300mm respectively.

BCE_Practical.indd 168 12/12/2019 11:49:22 AM