checkout screen is already displayed? Can you find a way to disable the button in this circumstance?

- The list of possible payment types is currently stored as a constant in the `Order` class. Can you move this list into a database table? Can you still make validation work for the field?