- AZIZ ANSARI (Age 60 Years) - Died of a heart attack in a bank, third day of trying to exchange old notes
- RAGHUNATH VERMA (Age 70 Years) - Died waiting in a bank queue
- SHABANA (Age 20 Years) - Committed suicide
- CHILD - Hospital did not admit child, wanted advance, parents only had old notes. Hospital has denied the charge
- KUSH (Age 1 Year) - Doctors stopped treatment after parents ran out of Rs. 100 notes. Parents brought him home where he died
- ELDERLY WOMAN - Died while counting notes. Police found Rs. 2.69 lakh worth of old currency notes alongside her body
- UNKNOWN - Died of heart attack after hearing demonetization announcement. Had received Rs. 70 lakhs in advance for selling his land just the previous day.
- KAMTA PRASAD (Age 75 Years) - Died waiting in a bank queue, was ill
- BABU LAL (Age 50 Years) - Died of heart attack after returning home, having failed to exchange currency for 3 days. Daughter was to get married
- MOHAMMED IDREES (Age 45 Years) - Died of heart attack while on his way to bank to exchange old notes
- TIRTHARAJI (Age 40 Years) - Died of shock when she went to the bank to deposit Rs.1000 notes and was told these were not legal tender
- UNKNOWN - Felt chest pain after hearing demonetization announcement, died before doctors arrived
- UNKNOWN - Died in a stampede outside bank
- GIRL CHILD (Age 4 Years) - Was sick, needed treatment. Died in father's arms standing in bank queue
- SURESH (Age 18 Years) - B.Sc. second year student hanged himself as he could not withdraw money from bank to pay his college examination fees
- INDRASANI DEVI (Age 70 Years) - Felt ill standing in bank queue, died of cardiac arrest soon after. Her daughter-in-law had to stand in queue at the same bank to withdraw money for cremation
- MURTI DEVI (Age 85 Years) - Died waiting in a bank queue
- AKBAR (Age 27 Years) - Committed suicide on hearing the announcement that over the counter exchange of currency notes had been discontinued
- SALEKI (Age 68 Years) - Collapsed standing in bank queue, died in the hospital
- SHESH KUMAR (Age 50 Years) - Had chest pain, but they did not have money. Son and wife rushed to the bank but by the time they returned after 5 hours, he had died
- RAKESH CHAND (Age 54 Years) - Ex-CRPF man, had been trying to withdraw money for several days for medical treatment. After many unsuccessful tries, he committed suicide
- SHAMIM (Age 45 Years) - Died following a brief illness, his wife could not withdraw money to pay for medicines even after trying for four days
- SATISH KUMAR (Age 48 Years) - Committed suicide as he was unable to withdraw cash from the bank for his son's wedding

WEST BENGAL 13 DEATHS

- DHARANI KANTA BHOWMIK (Age 56 Years) - Died waiting in a bank queue, had queued up for three consecutive days
- MADHU TIWARY - Killed by her husband because she returned from ATM without new notes
- SHIBU NANDI - Committed suicide as he could not pay his labourers wages
- SITARAM - Committed suicide as he couldn't exchange old notes and couldn't pay off his loans
- ROBIN MUKHERJEE (Age 73 Years) - Died standing in a bank queue
- BISWADEB NASKAR - Collapsed while standing in a bank queue to withdraw pension and died
- KALLOL ROY CHOWDHURY - Died standing in a bank queue
- UNKNOWN - Died standing in a bank queue
- SRIMANTA SARKAR - Committed suicide after he failed to exchange demonetized currency even after trying for three weeks
- DEBASHISH BHAKTA - Committed suicide unable to pay workers
- NOEL TOPNO (Age 52 Years) - chief manager of a Central Bank of India branch, lost consciousness and died of suspected cardiac arrest while working.
- SITARAM SHARMA (Age 60 Years) - Fell ill after standing in bank queue for hours, died later that day
- SANAT BAG (Age 55 Years) - Died waiting in a bank queue