continued to operate under the licence of ABN AMRO Bank NV, headquartered in the Netherlands, until the RBI granted permission for the transfer to RBS PLC. As CEO and Chairperson of ABN AMRO/RBS India, I was therefore accountable to three Regulators – the Reserve Bank of India, the Dutch Central Bank, and the Bank of England, and was frequently at the RBI to update them on global developments affecting our bank.

2. On 2 August 2017, Arvind Panagariya resigned as vice chairman of NITI Aayog to go back to teach at Columbia University. Ten months later, on 20 June 2018, Arvind Subramanian also vacated his post as Chief Economic Advisor citing family commitments, to return to the US.
3. The Parliamentary Public Accounts Committee (PAC) is a committee of 15 Members of Parliament from the Lok Sabha and 7 from the Rajya Sabha, headed by an MP from the Opposition. It is the oldest of all house panels and its job is to audit the revenue and expenditure of the Government of India. An important function of the PAC is discussion on points of financial discipline and principle. It has the authority to call upon any Ministry or Department of the Government to explain what action disciplinary or otherwise, should be taken in cases of negligence, loss, or extravagance. See https://loksabha.nic.in/
4. On 30 December 2016, the PAC, headed by senior Congress leader Prof. K.V. Thomas, asked the RBI Governor, Urjit Patel, to appear before it on 28 January 2017 and asked him these 10 questions on demonetization. 'Explain demonetisation, your role, flip-flops, secrecy: Parliament panel to RBI Governor Urjit Patel',The Indian Express dated 28 January 2017, https://indianexpress.com/article/india/explain-demonetization-your-role-flip-flops-secrecy-parliament-panel-to-rbi-governor-4464383/
5. RBI issued 63 circulars in the 50 days between 8 November and 30 December 2016, and another 5 between 1 January and 30 March 2017, pertaining to the 'Withdrawal of Legal Tender Character of existing ₹500/- and ₹1,000/- Bank Notes' (or Specified Bank Notes SBNs).
6. Raghuram G. Rajan was the RBI Governor from 4 September 2013 to 4 September 2016. Former Chief Economic Advisor to the Government of India and Chief Economist of the International Monetary Fund and currently the Katherine Dusak Miller Distinguished Service Professor of Finance at the University of Chicago's Booth School of Business, Rajan is regarded as one of the few economists who had warned about the risks to the global financial system prior to the 2008 financial crisis.
7. 'Raghuram Rajan wonders why cash with public grows during elections', The Indian Express dated 6 April 2016, https://indianexpress.com/article/elections-2016/india/india-news-india/raghuram-rajan-wonders-why-cash-with-public-grows-during-elections/
8. 'Note ban planned carefully by RBI, Rs 500 note only hiccup: R. Gandhi', LiveMint dated 5 April 2017, https://www.livemint.com/Industry/Nx9c5yKWRKsoo625u3Ae2N/Note-ban-planned-for-carefully-by-RBI-Rs500-note-only-hiccu.html
9. In June 2018, R. Gandhi joined One97 Communications, which runs Paytm, as an advisor ('Career central banker R Gandhi joins Paytm board as an advisor', https://economictimes.indiatimes.com/small-biz/startups/newsbuzz/career-central-banker-r-gandhi-joins-paytm-board-as-an-advisor/articleshow/64658301.cms). As Paytm was considered to be one of the biggest beneficiaries of demonetization ('Thanks to