₹116 and if used as advised, could apparently ink 500 people. By that math, 148.25 million people could have been marked using the fresh supplies of indelible ink. H.A. Venkatesh, chairman of MPVL, confirmed to the Mint on 18 November 2016 that they had dispatched 30,000 bottles to RBI Mysore, which would then distribute it among banks across the country. It is not known whether the aforementioned bottles were received, or sent to banks.
