She mentored the bank's micro-finance programme that financed over 6,50,000 rural women and chaired the bank's foundation that provided livelihood assistance to 75,000 women-led households in threatened ecosystems. Her prior experience was with Lazard and with Grindlays Bank.

Meera is a member of the International Board of Right to Play, a board member of LiberalsIndia for Good Governance (a continuation of the Indian Liberal Group), and sits on the supervisory board of Jai Hind College. She is a founding member of APLI Mumbai, a citizens' movement for the regeneration of Mumbai's PortLands and a more livable Mumbai. Meera is also a member of Hillary Clinton's International Council on Women's Business Leadership.

She stood for the Mumbai South Lok Sabha seat in 2009 as an independent candidate, and in 2014 as the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) candidate. She is a member of AAP's National Executive Committee. Meera helped lead the Delhi dialogue which was the basis of the party's manifesto for the Delhi state elections. The party would go on to win with an absolute majority in 2015.

Meera was awarded the Philanthropist of the Year award by FICCI, Woman Banker of the Year award by the Indian Merchants Chamber, the Woman of Substance award by the Rotary Club, and the Karmaveer Puraskaar, a national people's award instituted by iCONGO, a countrywide confederation of NGOs, for her work in social development.

Meera is an MBA from INSEAD, France, and has completed the Advanced Management Programme at Harvard Business School. She is a fellow of the Chartered Institute of Bankers (UK).