SYRIA	MAMLUK EGYPT	FRANCE	PAPACY	HOLY ROMAN EMPIRE	ENGLAND
		Albigensian Crusade (1209–1255)		Otto IV (1209–1215)	Jews in England imprisoned (1210)
Fifth Crusade (1213–1221)
		Battle of Bouvines (1214)
			Fourth Lateran Council (1215)	Frederick II, as King of Germany (1215–1250)	Magna Carta (1215) Barons' War (1215–1217)
	al-Kamil of Egypt (1218–1238)		Honorius III (1216–1227)		Henry III (1216–1272)
				Frederick II, Emperor (1220–1250)
		Louis VIII (1223–1226)
		Louis IX (1226–1270
			Gregory IX (1227–1241)
Sixth Crusade (1228–1229) Surrender of Jerusalem (1229)			Council of Toulouse (1229)		Invasion of Brittany (1230)
			Excommunicamus (1231)	Diet of Ravenna (1231)
			Vox in Rama (1233)
				Rebellion of Henry VII (1234)
	Civil war in Egypt (1238–1242)			Conrad IV, King of Germany (1237–1254)
	as-Salih Ayyub (1240–1249)			Deposition of Frederick II (1239)
as-Salih Ismail seizes Syria (1241)
		Battle of Taillebourg (1242)
			Innocent IV (1243–1254)
Ayyub seizes Jerusalem (1244)
				Civil war begins in Germany (1246)
Seventh Crusade (1248–1254)
	Turan-shah (1249–1250)
	Shajar al-Durr (1250)
	Aybek (1250–1257) (with al-Malik al-Ashraf)	Louis IX surrenders (1250)		Death of Frederick II (1250)
Bohemund VI of Antioch (1251–1275)		Pastoureaux (1251)
		Death of Queen Blanche (1252)
		Louis IX returns to France (1254)
	al-Mansur Ali (1257–1259)
	Qutuz (1259–1260)
Mamluk reconquest of Syria	Battle of Ain Jalut (1260) Baibars (1260–1277)
Baibars recaptures Antioch (1268)					