10. The flag shall not be intentionally allowed to touch the ground or the floor or trail in water

11. The flag shall not be draped over the hood, top, sides or back of a vehicle, train, boat or an aircraft

12. The flag shall not be used as a covering for a building

13. The flag shall not be intentionally displayed with its saffron portion downwards

2.2 A member of public, a private organisation or an educational institution may hoist/display the national flag on all days and occasions, ceremonial or otherwise. Consistent with the dignity and honour of the national flag

1. Whenever the national flag is displayed, it should occupy the position of honour and should be distinctly placed

2. A damaged or dishevelled flag should not be displayed

3. The flag should not be flown from a single masthead simultaneously with any other flag or flags

4. The flag should not be flown on any vehicle except in accordance with the provisions contained in Section IX of Part III of this code

5. When the flag is displayed on a speaker's platform, it should be flown on the speaker's right as he faces the audience or flat against the wall, above and behind the speaker

6. When the flag is displayed flat and horizontal on a wall, the saffron band should be upper most and when displayed vertically, the saffron band shall be on the right with reference to the flag (i.e., left to the person facing the flag)

7. To the extent possible, the flag should conform to the specifications prescribed in Part I of this code

8. No other flag or bunting should be placed higher than or above or side by side with the national flag; nor should any object including flowers or garlands or emblem be placed on or above the flag-mast from which the flag is flown

9. The flag should not be used as a festoon, rosette or bunting or in any other manner for decoration

10. The flag made of paper may be waved by public on occasions of important national, cultural and sports events. However, such paper flags should not be discarded or thrown on the ground after the event. As far as possible, they should be disposed of in private consistent with the dignity of the flag

11. Where the flag is displayed in open or displayed on the house of a member of public, it may be flown day and night[2].

12. The flag should not be displayed or fastened in any manner as may damage it

13. When the flag is in a damaged or soiled condition, it shall be destroyed as a whole in private, preferably by burning or by any other method consistent with the dignity of the flag.
