(j) When a bill passed by a state legislature is reserved by the governor for consideration of the President, the President can:

(i) give his/her assent to the bill, or

(ii) withhold his/her assent to the bill, or

(iii) direct the governor to return the bill (if it is not a money bill) for reconsideration of the state legislature. It should be noted here that it is not obligatory for the President to give his/her assent even if the bill is again passed by the state legislature and sent again to him/her for his/her consideration.

(k) He/she can promulgate ordinances when the Parliament is not in session. These ordinances must be approved by the Parliament within six weeks from its reassembly. He/she can also withdraw an ordinance at any time.

(l) He/she lays the reports of the Comptroller and Auditor General, Union Public Service Commission, Finance Commission, and others, before the Parliament.

(m) He/she can make regulations for the peace, progress and good government of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands, Lakshadweep, Dadra and Nagar Haveli and Daman and Diu and Ladakh. In the case of Puducherry also, the President can legislate by making regulations but only when the assembly is suspended or dissolved.

 Financial Powers

The financial powers and functions of the President are:

(a) Money bills can be introduced in the Parliament only with his prior recommendation.

(b) He/she causes to be laid before the Parliament the annual financial statement (ie, the Union Budget).

(c) No demand for a grant can be made except on his recommendation.

(d) He/she can make advances out of the contingency fund of India to meet any unforeseen expenditure.

(e) He/she constitutes a finance commission after every five years to recommend the distribution of revenues between the Centre and the states.

 Judicial Powers

The judicial powers and functions of the President are:

(a) He/she appoints the Chief Justice and the judges of Supreme Court and high courts.

(b) He/she can seek advice from the Supreme Court on any question of law or fact. However, the advice tendered by the Supreme Court is not binding on the President.

(c) He/she can grant pardon, reprieve, respite and remission of punishment, or suspend, remit or commute the sentence of any person convicted of any offence:
