[6]No person except Dr. Rajendra Prasad has occupied the office for two terms.

[7]So far two Presidents, Dr. Zakir Husain and Fakhruddin Ali Ahmed, have died during their term of office.

[8]For example, when President Dr. Zakir Husain died in May, 1969, the then Vice-President, V.V. Giri was acting as the President. Soon after V.V. Giri resigned to contest the election of the President. Then the Chief Justice of India, M. Hidayatullah worked as the officiating President from 20 July, 1969 to 24 August, 1969.

[9]'Veto' is a Latin word that connotes 'forbid'.
