2. Instead of every individual Judge devising his/her own procedure for dealing with PIL, it would be appropriate for each High Court to properly formulate rules for encouraging the genuine PIL filed and discouraging PIL filed with oblique motives.

3. The Court should prima facie verify the credentials of the petitioner before entertaining the PIL.

4. The Court shall be prima facie satisfied regarding the correctness of the contents of petition before entertaining the PIL.

5. The Court should be fully satisfied that substantial public interest is involved before entertaining the petition.

6. The Court should ensure that the petition which involves larger public interest, gravity and urgency must be given priority over other petitions.

7. The Court before entertaining the PIL must ensure that the PIL is aimed at redressal of genuine public harm and public injury. The Court should also ensure that there is no personal gain, private motive or oblique motive behind filing PIL.

8. The Court should also ensure that the petition filed by busybodies for extraneous and ulterior motives must be discouraged by imposing exemplary costs or adopting similar novel methods to curb frivolous petitions and the petitions filed for extraneous considerations.
