10. He/she lays the reports of the State Finance Commission, the State Public Service Commission and the Comptroller and Auditor-General relating to the accounts of the state, before the state legislature.

 Financial Powers

The financial powers and functions of the governor are:

1. He/she sees that the Annual Financial Statement (state budget) is laid before the state legislature.
2. Money bills can be introduced in the state legislature only with his/her prior recommendation.
3. No demand for a grant can be made except on his/her recommendation.
4. He/she can make advances out of the Contingency Fund of the state to meet any unforeseen expenditure.
5. He/she constitutes a finance commission after every five years to review the financial position of the panchayats and the municipalities.

 Judicial Powers

The judicial powers and functions of the governor are:

1. He/she can grant pardons, reprieves, respites and remissions of punishment or suspend, remit and commute the sentence of any person convicted of any offence against any law relating to a matter to which the executive power of the state extends.
2. He/she is consulted by the President while appointing the judges of the concerned state high court.
3. He/she makes appointments, postings and promotions of the district judges in consultation with the state high court.
4. He/she also appoints persons to the judicial service of the state (other than district judges) in consultation with the state high court and the State Public Service Commission.

Now, we will study in detail the three important powers of the governor (veto power, ordinance-making power and pardoning power) by comparing them with that of the President in Tables 30.1, 30.2 and 30.3 respectively.
