6. In Reserving Bills for President's Consideration: The Governors' reservation of State Bills passed by the Legislature for the consideration of the President have created a controversy in some cases.

7. Regarding Nominations to Legislative Council: The use of discretion by Governors in the nomination of members to the Legislative Council has been criticised. These actions have been criticised on the ground that the Governors have no discretion in such matters.

8. Regarding Exercise of Discretion as Chancellor of University: The use of discretion by Governor, in nominating members of a University Council or University functionary, in his capacity as Chancellor of a University in the State, has also come in for criticism. In several State Universities, the concerned legislations specifically provide that the Governor by virtue of his office shall be Chancellor or head of the University and by these legislations certain powers have been conferred on the Chancellor. The Governors have exercised their powers as Chancellor under the statute and not as Governor. These actions of the Governors have again been questioned on the premise that they have to abide by the advice of the Council of Ministers even in such cases.
