2. Article 164:

    1. The Chief Minister shall be appointed by the governor and other ministers shall be appointed by the governor on the advise of the Chief Minister;

    2. The ministers shall hold office during the pleasure of the governor; and

    3. The council of ministers shall be collectively responsible to the legislative assembly of the state.

3. Article 167: It shall be the duty of the Chief Minister:

    1. to communicate to the governor of the state all decisions of the council of ministers relating to the administration of the affairs of the state and proposals for legislation;

    2. to furnish such information relating to the administration of the affairs of the state and proposals for legislation as the governor may call for; and

    3. if the governor so requires, to submit for the consideration of the council of ministers any matter on which a decision has been taken by a minister but which has not been considered by the council.

[1]The form of oath of office and secrecy for the Chief Minister is similar to that for any state minister.

[2]This was ruled by the Supreme Court in S.R. Bommai vs. Union of India (1994). However, there have been many violations of this rule, whereby the governors have dismissed the Chief Ministers without giving them an opportunity to prove their majority in the legislative assembly.

[3]Article 167 specifically deals with this function of the Chief Minister.

[4]Union home minister is the chairman of all the zonal councils.
