1. He/she maintains order and decorum in the assembly for conducting its business and regulating its proceedings. This is his/her primary responsibility and he/she has final power in this regard.

2. He/she is the final interpreter of the provisions of (a) the Constitution of India, (b) the rules of procedure and conduct of business of assembly, and (c) the legislative precedents, within the assembly.

3. He/she adjourns the assembly or suspends the meeting in the absence of a quorum.

4. He/she does not vote in the first instance. But, he/she can exercise a casting vote in the case of a tie.

5. He/she can allow a 'secret' sitting of the House at the request of the leader of the House.

6. He/she decides whether a bill is a Money Bill or not and his/her decision on this question is final.

7. He/she decides the questions of disqualification of a member of the assembly, arising on the ground of defection under the provisions of the Tenth Schedule.

8. He/she appoints the chairman of all the committees of the assembly and supervises their functioning. He/she is the chairman of the Business Advisory Committee, the Rules Committee and the General Purpose Committee.

 Deputy Speaker of Assembly

Like the Speaker, the Deputy Speaker is also elected by the assembly itself from amongst its members. He/she is elected after the election of the Speaker has taken place.

Like the Speaker, the Deputy Speaker remains in office usually during the life of the assembly. However, he/she also vacates his/her office earlier in any of the following three cases:

1. if he/she ceases to be a member of the assembly;

2. if he/she resigns by writing to the speaker; and

3. if he/she is removed by a resolution passed by a majority of all the then members of the assembly (i.e., an effective majority). Such a resolution can be moved only after giving 14 days' advance notice.

The Deputy Speaker performs the duties of the Speaker's office when it is vacant. He/she also acts as the Speaker when the latter is absent from the sitting of assembly. In both the cases, he/she has all the powers of the Speaker.

The Speaker nominates from amongst the members a panel of chairman. Any one of them can preside over the assembly in the absence of the Speaker or the Deputy Speaker. He/she has the same power as the speaker when so presiding. He/she holds office until a new panel of chairman is nominated.

 Chairman of Council

The Chairman is elected by the council itself from amongst its members.
