[7]However, the Chairman/Speaker need not accept the resignation if he/she is satisfied that it is not voluntary or genuine.

[8]A person can remain a minister for six months, without being a member of either house of the state legislature.

[9]The position, in this regard, is very well analysed by J.C. Johari in the following way: 'The Constitution is not clear on this point whether a bill of constitutional amendment referred to the states for ratification by their legislatures shall include the Vidhan Parishad or not. In practice, it may be understood that the will of the Vidhan Sabha has to prevail. In case the Vidhan Parishad concurs with the view of the Vidhan Sabha, it is all right; in case it differs, the Vidhan Sabha may pass it again and thereby ignore the will of
