2. the discovery and production of any document;
3. the reception of evidence on affidavits;
4. the requisitioning of any public record or document from any court or office; and
5. such other matters as may be prescribed.

Further, a Lok Adalat shall have the requisite powers to specify its own procedure for the determination of any dispute coming before it. Also, all proceedings before a Lok Adalat shall be deemed to be judicial proceedings within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code (1860) and every Lok Adalat shall be deemed to be a Civil Court for the purpose of the Code of Criminal Procedure (1973).

6. An award of a Lok Adalat shall be deemed to be a decree of a Civil Court or an order of any other court. Every award made by a Lok Adalat shall be final and binding on all the parties to the dispute. No appeal shall lie to any court against the award of the Lok Adalat.

 Types

There are three types of Lok Adalats viz., National Lok Adalats, State Lok Adalats and Permanent Lok Adalats (Public Utility Services). The various cases settled in National Lok Adalats and State Lok Adalats include pre-litigation and pending matters related to Negotiable Instruments Act, bank recovery cases, labour dispute cases, service matters, criminal compoundable matters, MACT, etc[2a].

These three types of Lok Adalats are explained below[2b]:

1. National Lok Adalats: The National Level Lok Adalats are held at regular intervals where on a single day Lok Adalats are held throughout the country, in all the courts right from the Supreme Court till the Taluk Levels wherein cases are disposed off in huge numbers. From 2015, National Lok Adalats are being held on a specific subject matter every month.
2. State Lok Adalats: These are also known as Regular Lok Adalats. These can be further classified into the following types:
    1. Continuous Lok Adalat: A Lok Adalat bench sits continuously for a set number of days to facilitate settlements by deferring unsettled matters to the next date and encouraging parties to reflect on the terms of the mutually accepted settlement before actual settlement.
    2. Daily Lok Adalat: This type of Lok Adalat is organised on daily basis.
    3. Mobile Lok Adalat: These are organised by taking the Lok Adalat set up in a Multi-utility van to different areas for resolving petty cases and also spreading legal awareness in the area.
    4. Mega Lok Adalat: This is organised in the State on a single day in all courts of the State.
3. Permanent Lok Adalats: These are explained below in detail.
