Further, the committee shall also consult such institutions and organisations as the Governor may specify.

The chairperson of a District Planning Committee shall forward the development plan to the state government.

Metropolitan Planning Committee Every metropolitan area shall have a metropolitan planning committee to prepare a draft development plan[5]. The state legislature may make provisions with respect to the following:

1. The composition of such committees;
2. The manner of election of members of such committees;
3. The representation in such committes of the Central government, state government and other organisations;
4. The functions of such committees in relation to planning and coordination for the metropolitan area; and
5. The manner of election of chairpersons of such committees.

The act lays down that two-thirds of the members of a metropolitan planning committee should be elected by the elected members of the municipalities and chairpersons of the panchayats in the metropolitan area from amongst themselves. The representation of these members in the committee should be in proportion to the ratio between the population of the municipalities and the panchayats in that metropolitan area.

In preparing the draft development plan, a metropolitan planning committee shall have regard to—

1. the plans prepared by the Municipalities and the Panchayats in the Metropolitan area;
2. matters of common interest between the Municipalities and the Panchayats, including coordinated spatial planning of the area, sharing of water and other physical and natural resources, the integrated development of infrastructure and environmental conservation;
3. the overall objectives and priorities set by the Government of India and the government of the state and
4. the extent and nature of investments likely to be made in the Metropolitan area by agencies of the Government of India and of the Government of the State and other available resources whether financial or otherwise.

Further, the committee shall also consult such institutions and organisations as the Governor may specify.

The chairperson of a Metropolitan Planning Committee shall forward the development plan to the state government.

Continuance of Existing Laws and Municipalities All the state laws relating to municipalities shall continue to be in force until the expiry of one year from the commencement of this act. In other words,
