Since then (1955), twenty-one more Law Commissions have been constituted, each with a three-year term and with different terms of reference. The name of these Commissions, their duration and the name of their Chairmen are given in Table 70.2.

Composition

The composition of the Commission is not fixed. It varies from one Commission to another. Generally, it consists of a Chairman, some full-time members, a member-secretary and some part-time members depending upon the nature of topics referred to it for consideration.

The Chairman and full-time members are either serving or retired judges of the Supreme Court or High Courts, or legal experts, jurists or professors of law in any university of India.

The Member-Secretary belongs to the Indian Legal Service and holds the rank of either Additional Secretary or Secretary to the Government of India.

The part-time members are appointed from among the eminent members of the bar or eminent scholars in the academic field or persons having specialised knowledge in a particular branch of law.

The Commission's regular staff consists of about a dozen research personnel of different ranks and varied experiences. A small group of secretarial staff looks after the administration side of the Commission's operations.
