[9]The 1909, 1919, and 1935 Acts provided for communal representation.

[10]Even in the western countries, the right to vote was extended only gradually. For example, USA gave franchise to women in 1920, Britain in 1928, USSR (now Russia) in 1936, France in 1945, Italy in 1948 and Switzerland in 1971.

[11]At present, there are three All-India services, namely Indian Administrative Service (IAS), Indian Police Service (IPS) and Indian Forest Service (IFoS). In 1947, Indian Civil Service (ICS) was replaced by IAS and the Indian Police (IP) was replaced by IPS and were recognised by the Constitution as All-India Services. In 1963, IFoS was created and it came into existence in 1966.

[12]The 44th Amendment Act (1978) has replaced the original term 'internal disturbance' by the new term 'armed rebellion'.
