(vi) To ensure that children and young people are supported in their social, cultural and political integration.

(vii) To ensure that every person is protected against the economic consequences of old-age, invalidity, illness, accident, unemployment, maternity, being orphaned and being widowed.