The services export and export of serving personnel can be a real clincher to raise the share of services to 60-65 per cent of GDP and reach $10 trillion by 2035.