

- None button removes border lines from the selected cell or group of cells, which can be crucial when customizing border lines in a worksheet.
- Outline allows you to insert outer border lines only.

  For instance, if you select cells A3 to A9 in the Assignment 1 workbook you created, under the Preset, choose the Outline, and click the OK button.