The above illustration shows how the border lines was applied to the selected cells and the final result after clicking on the OK button.

To remove the border from the selected cells, go back to the Border tab on the Format cells dialog box and click on None in the preset section.

