Vertical alignment allows you to move the content of a cell from the Top edge of the cell to the Middle, then to the Bottom edge of the cell.

Select the cells you want to change the alignment, go to the Alignment group under the Home tab, and then select any vertical alignments commands.

The vertical alignment goes well on cells whose row height is higher than the default dimension. For any cell whose height must have increased for one reason