A cell or range of cells can be colored using the "Font Color" button in the "Font" group under the "Home" tab of the ribbon.

It is important to ensure that the color selection you use for fill and text in Excel does not obstruct the data. So, always avoid using identical colors for both fill and text.