Using the Mouse Method

Another method you can use to insert rows or columns is by using the mouse method. After selecting the row(s) or column(s), right-click on the selected row or column.

Next, select Insert from the menu.

Excel will insert a new row(s) immediately, but if your selection is on a column, Excel will insert a new set of column (s) as well.