

You have successfully referred to another worksheet to get data without entering it manually.

Even if the name of the source worksheet (Station 1) is changed, Excel will update the formula automatically with the new name.

1. Next, you click the fill handle on cell A2 (on the Product Ordered worksheet), drag and fill the range of cells to copy the cell reference automatically.