

The MAX function finds the highest value in a range of cells.

With these functions, you can find the highest or lowest values in a dataset and use Excel to analyze and understand the data.

The Highest value in the range of cells C3:C17 is 50.