ZOOM VIEWS

Towards the right corner of the status bar, you have the zoom views and magnification slider.

By default, the current view is set to Normal; this is what you see when you open a blank workbook. Then you have the page layout followed by the page break view. With these buttons you can quickly change the view of the worksheet.

The magnification or zoom slider allows you to zoom in or out of the active worksheet view.