

But using the Send Backward option will only send Shape 3 one layer back (moving it to the back of Shape 2).

When you have more than two objects overlapping each other on different layers, the "Send Backward" will give you more control.