CHOOSE CHART TYPE

The "Choose Chart Type" feature in Excel is an essential tool for creating visually appealing and easy-to-understand charts. Once you have selected the necessary data for your chart, click the “Insert” tab on the ribbon and move the mouse cursor toward the “Charts command group.”

This feature allows users to select from various chart types, including line charts, bar charts, column charts, pie charts, and many more.