LABELS

Labels are essential, so you can tell what's happening in the chart.

Axis labels help you see the scale and units you are using.

Data labels, on the other hand, show you the actual values for each point on the chart.

