LEGENDS

Legends are another features you can use to help anyone understand viewing your chart. You can assign colors or symbols to data series, so people can see what is what and compare things more easily.

