

1. To summarize your data, select a field in the "Values" area and choose an aggregation function (e.g., sum, count, average). This will calculate the specified function for each combination of the rows and columns in your PivotTable.