

For instance, if you want to view the total sales percentage for each product category rather than the actual sales figures, select the "Show values as" tab, and choose "% of column total" from the list of options.