

	A	B
1	Customer	(All)
2	Date	(All)
3
4	Row Labels	Sum of Sales
5	Fish	0.69%
6	Cakes	3.43%
7	Beverages and drinks	6.41%
8	Bread	6.64%
9	Ice cream	8.66%
10	Cereal	8.94%
11	Preserves	9.67%
12	Pasta	9.89%
13	Vegetables	10.29%
14	Herbs and spices	10.59%
15	Nuts	11.28%
16	Meat and proteins	13.51%
17	Grand Total	100.00%

By experimenting and practicing, you can effectively use PivotTable calculations to extract valuable insights from your data, which can help you in making better business decisions.

It’s important to remember that making modifications to PivotTable calculations can have an impact on the accuracy of your data. It is crucial to carefully review your changes before finalizing them.