

This means the area you selected and unlocked is free from any default setting. So if you Protect the worksheet, these cells won't be affected.

1. Click the OK button to close the dialog box.
2. The next step is to protect the worksheet. Click on the Review tab in the ribbon, then click Protect Sheet.