

Following these steps, you can unlock a specific cell (s) and protect the other part of the worksheet from unauthorized access to help keep your data safe and secure.