Remember, when creating a Macro, click the suitable cell at the beginning and click outside the task at the end. This will also help the macro to know where to start and end.