AUTOFIT COLUMN AND ROW

The AutoFit method requires a single click on the command to fit the column width or row height automatically.

Take your cursor to the edge of the column or row header line and double-click.

Excel will automatically adjust the column or row to fit all the content.

AutoFit is a fast method to fit your cell contents within a row or column.