

To remain in the same cell after entering your data, press the Ctrl + Enter key.

If you are entering data within a column, press the Enter key to move one step downwards.

If you are entering data within a row, press the Tab key to move one step to the right.