KEYBOARD SHORTCUTS

While Excel is an effective tool for data analysis and management, it can be time-consuming, especially if you have to browse through menus and ribbons to access specific functions.

This is where keyboard shortcuts can make all the difference. In fact, the use of shortcuts can significantly increase productivity and save a lot of time overall.

These types of commands allow you to perform common tasks quickly and efficiently, without having to take your hands off the keyboard or search for the desired item within the menu. With just a few keystrokes, you can perform complex tasks such as formatting, sorting, filtering, and analysing data.

In summary, keyboard shortcuts are an essential tool for anyone who works with Excel. Using them can save time and increase productivity.

Below we have listed some of the most important Excel keyboard shortcuts:

- Ctrl+C - Copy selected cells or text
- Ctrl+X - Cut selected cells or text
- Ctrl+V - Paste copied or cut cells or text
- Ctrl+Z - Undo the last action
- Ctrl+A - Selects all cells in the worksheet
- Ctrl+F - Opens the Find and Replace dialog box with the Find tab selected
- Ctrl+H - Opens the Find and Replace dialog box with the Replace tab selected.
- Ctrl+G - Go to a specific cell
- Ctrl+1 - Opens the Format Cells dialog box
- Ctrl+Shift+~ - Applies the general format of numbers
- Ctrl+Shift+$ - Applies the numeric format of the Currency
- Ctrl+Shift+% - Apply percentage number format
- Ctrl+Shift+# - Applies the numerical format of Date
- Ctrl+Shift+@ - Applies numerical time format
- Ctrl+Shift+^ - Applies exponential number format
- Ctrl+Shift+! - Applies Number format with two decimal places and comma separator for thousands