Functions belonging to this category enable manipulation and analysis of dates within worksheets. Some of the most commonly used and user-friendly functions in this group include:

- TODAY Function
  This function enables the retrieval of the current date as output.

=TODAY()

- DATE Function
  This function returns a specified date.

=DATE(year; month; day)

- YEAR Function
  This function allows you to obtain the year from a specified date. The argument to be entered is the date from which you want to extract the year, which should be formatted as a date using the DATE function.

=YEAR(serial_number)

- MONTH Function