a time into a time value.

=TIMEVALUE(text string)

Those functions are just a subset of the numerous time functions available in Excel. To utilize them, simply input the function name and the appropriate arguments into a cell or formula. Alternatively, you can access the Insert Function dialogue box from the interface