v) In State where bicameral legislature exists: The Governor nominates one-sixth of the members of the legislative council from among persons having special knowledge or practical experience in respect of literature, science, art, co-operative movement or social service. He may also nominate a person from the Anglo-India community to the legislative assembly.

3. Financial Powers

The Governor has financial powers. His financial powers cover the following:

i) The finance minister submits the budget or financial statement before the legislature. But no money bill can be introduced in the legislative assembly without the prior permission of the Governor.

ii) No demand for grants can be made without the recommendation of the Governor.

iii) The Governor is the custodian of the contingency funds of the State from where he can make payments to meet the emergency without the prior sanction of the legislature.

4. Judicial Powers

The Governor has judicial powers. His judicial powers cover the following:

(i) He determines the questions of appointments, postings, promotions, etc. of subordinate courts (ie., district courts and munsiff courts).

(ii) He may be consulted by the President of India, while making appointments of the judges of the high court.

(iii) The Governor has the power to pardon, suspend, remit or commute the sentence of any person convicted of an offence against any law relating to a matter to which the executive power of the State extends.

5. Discretionary Powers

The Governor also has discretionary powers, i.e., he has the powers to act independently using his wisdom and discretion. His discretionary powers relate to:

i) Appointing a new Chief Minister in a situation where no single party or leader commands majority support.

ii) Dismissing a ministry where it refuses to resign even after losing majority support in the house or after being defeated on a non-confidence motion.

iii) Dissolution of assembly on the advice of a Chief Minister who has lost majority support.

iv) Sending to the President report about the failure of constitutional machinery and to impose President's rule in the State.

v) Giving assent to bills passed by the legislature.
