Jurisdiction of nearby State High Courts. Each High Court comprises of a Chief Justice and such other Judges as the President may from time to time, appoint. The Chief Justice of the High Court is appointed by the President in consultation with the Chief Justice of India and the Governor of the State. In appointing other judges, the Chief Justice of that High Court is also consulted. The Judges of the High Courts hold office until the age of 62 years and are removable in the same manner as a Judge of the Supreme Court. To be considered for appointment as a Judge one must be a citizen of India and have held a Judicial office in India for 10 years or must have practiced as an advocate of High Court.

The High Courts too have original and appellate jurisdictions, in cases arising within the territories of the State. Each High Court has powers of Super, intendant over all courts within its jurisdiction. Though the High Courts are the party of single and integrated judicial system, yet they are completely independent judicial institutions. The Supreme Court has no direct administrative control over them, nor they are in any way controlled try either the legislature or executive of the State. But the Judger may be transferred from one High Court to another by the President his consultation with the Chief Justice of India.

The High Court too has the power to issue writ in cases involving 'Fundamental Rights'.

Legal Remedies for Safeguarding Fundamental Rights

Both the Supreme Court and High Court have the power to issue writs with a view to ensure quicker justice and early relief to persons whose rights are violated. There are five such writs.

1. Habeas Corpus: Literally means a demand to produce the person in body. It applies in cases where a person is alleged to have been illegally detained. This writ safeguards personal liberty of every individual.

2. Mandamus is a command to act law fully and to resist from penetrothing an unlawful act, It is meant to direct any authority to perform its legal duty. Mandamus may he issued against any authority, Officers, Government or even judicial bodies that tail or refuse to perform a public duty and discharge a legal obligation.

3. Prohibition is issued by a higher Court to a lower court or tribunal for prohibiting it from exceeding its jurisdiction. Writ of Prohibition is issued only against a judicial or quasi – judicial body.

4. Certiorari too lies against judicial or quasi – judicial authorities, and it means 'to be informed'. The writ of certiorari is issued to quash illegal orders of judicial or quasi – judicial bodies

5. Quo – Warranto is a question asking 'with what authority or warrant'. This is meant ascertain the legal position in regard to claim of a person to hold a public office.

Besides these writs, the High Court's under Article 226 may issue other directions and orders in the interests of justice to the people.
