These social networks share several attributes in common:

- Membership. Social nets generally requires user to register names and accounts to avoid duplicate and maintain secrecy. So many public networks offer free registration and some meagre charges for their services. Private networks (such as BANK ACCOUNT HOLDERS groups) restrict registration to people who meet certain eligibility criteria.
- Content contribution. These networks allow members to easily share comments, movies, music, short films and/or photos with others.
- Frequent return visits. Healthy social net have a group of members who check in regularly to contribute their share and also for new updates
- Human relationship building. The common goal of most social networks is to allow interaction among people, which create stronger connection with people of different communities.

Benefits of Social Networks

Besides being a fun place to meet and relax with people, social networking leads to some extremely useful benefits to individuals and communities:
